'round town

with Betty Allen...

Animal lovers in the Valley are enjoying the new Foothills Human Herald published at Los Gatos by the SPCA and edited by Mrs. T. F. Tracy. It contains poetry, articles, stories and general informations about animals. Among other interesting tidbits, the editor suggests that the interpretation of the initials SPCA be changed to Society for the Promotion of Comfort to Animals.

Several Campbellites are contributing their talents to the Los Gatos Pageant, and their opinions of the production vary from excellent to superb!

A telephone call from Miss Marion Peake requests that a certain matter be straightened out. At the industrial zoning hearing last week, it was stated before the Planning Board and those attending the hearing that Mrs. Florine Peake and her daughter, whose property was included in the proposed area had signed the petition against the zoning change.

Miss Peake states that they did not sign a petition protesting it and are, on the contrary, enthusiastically in favor of industrial zoning for the area in which they reside. Unfortunately Miss Peake had to leave the hearing early and consequently was not able to deny the statement at the time it was made.

John Dewey says: "Those defending the 'status quo' always offer a united front because it is to their personal advantage. Those who promote the social welfare usually do not present a united front because their personal destiny is not immediately affected." This was demonstrated last week at the industrial zoning hearing when all those who felt their "personal destinies" to be immediately affected protested the move with a most "united front" while those in favor of the move, since their destinies were not "IMMEDIATELY affected" presented a loosely-organized front.

There are many who favor the allowance of industry in the community as a necessary part of our growth but who are not in favor of the large area at first presented to the board. These men hope to see the commission authorize the smaller area salvaged from the orginal petition.

We all have a part of our work that we like better than others. For me, it's finding the items for "Looking Back". I spend more than the time necessary for the task because I invariably start reading the old papers and can't stop. It's fun to see the town unfold backwards and the affectionate tone of the "personals" makes the doings of a long-ago yesterday seem very real.

Elsewhere in the paper appears a splendid tribute to Mrs. Modeant Catron, new volunteer director of the Roost, center of Campbell Youth activities. Her splendid example may inspire other parents to more interest with a consequent result that the "grapevine" will spread the word to the younger set that there's a good time to be had at "The Roost".

Because there was not a quorum present, the Chamber of Commerce was unable to meet last month. Ira Grim is writing the Kiwanis Bulletin this month and I hope his readers prick up their ears as to what he says. Here it is: "It really is wonderful seeing so many perfect attendance members in our club, and the boys all look forward to attending Kiwanis every week. I think it's wondrful, but what I can't understand it why none of the business men can spare one hour each month to attend a Chamber of Commerce meeting. I think we are all losing a good bet, for if this community ever needed a good live Chamber of Commerce, right now is the time; next year may be a little late."

You might keep in mind that next Wednesday there will be another meeting. Maybe a lot more of us could spare that hour a month!

Don't Forget "The Cats" At Los Gatos, Sept. 13, 14, 15

Evelyn Noga, soprano, and Lt. Mont Galbraith, guitarist, harmonize together in "The Cats", fantasy of feline heroes and heroines, which will be seen in the Los Gatos Bowl on the evenings of Sept. 13, 14, and 15. She will also have the role of the Princess in Puss 'n Boots.

Gala opening for "The Cats", Los Gatos pageant, will be on Friday night, Sept. 13, at 8 o'clock. Special events will precede and be concurrent with the three dates of the big extravaganza. A cat show, and children't cat parade, water carnival and contests will be part of the celebration for the re-opening of the outdoor Bowl, after seven years of darkness.

The program for the pre-pageant celebration has been announced as follows: Thursday, Sept. 12, 2:30 p. m., cat show, sponsored by the Rotary Club.

Your Newspaper in Public Service

The part of your community newspaper in public service and the sound, "down-to-earth" thinking of outstanding Pacific Coast editors will be presented in a series of special programs entitled "The Country Editor" over your National Broadcasting Company station which began last Thursday at 9:30 P. M. Those public service programs will give a new and different slant on pertinent problems of the day. Special guest editor on September 5 was Neil Murray, editor and publisher of the El Monte Herald. Other outstanding editors of the Pacific Coast will be heard on succeeding Thursday evenings over the N.B.C. stations in California, Oregon and Washington.

Sixteen-Year Old Draws Church Plans

The Pentecostal Church being built on the south side of San Jose will have a special meaning for LeDean Garrison, because the 16-year-old Campbell High School student drew the plans for the $25,000 structure.

Work on the plans was done this past summer while LeDean was recovering from a construction accident in which he suffered a leg injury. Seventy-five stitches were taken in the boy's leg, but he is expected to recover fully although there will be no football for him this school year.

The budding architect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Garrison of Sunny Oaks Ave. and has already designed many houses for his father, a builder. His ambition is to study architecture and become a full-fledged architect.

Next week he will enter his junior year at Campbell High School.

PEACH HARVEST WAGES BETWEEN $6-$8 A TON

Santa Clara County workers harvesting peaches will receive between $6 and $8 per ton for their work, it was announced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, with piece work rates for those picking peaches for market taking the highest classification.

NICK HEDEGARD HAS STROKE

Nick Hedegard, one of Campbell's most well-known citizens, suffered a stroke Monday and is now hospitalized in San Jose.

Carlton E. Morse, Editor, Guest At Scouts Meeting

By Dudley Herschbach, Scout Reporter

Campbell Scouts have a better knowledge of radio writing, thanks to Mr. Carlton E. Morse, famous radio playwright who was a guest at one of their meetings recently.

The meeting, an inter-troop affair, was held at the Moreland School clubhouse, Wednesday night, Aug. 28, and was attended by three Campbell Scout Trops, Moreland Troop 36, Troop 34, and Troop 31.

Features of the meeting were some lively scouting games, after which the Scouts engaged in a "Round Robin" story. The story is started by one scout who gets the characters into a bad predicament and then passes the story to the next Scout who attempts to get them out of their predicament and into a worse fix for the next fellow! Every Scout thus had a chance to demonstrate his imaginations' ability to cope with the situation; however, Mr. Morse's imagination failed him when his turn came, and the battered characters were finally killed and sent to heaven!

After the "Round Robin" ended the Scouts were free to ask Mr. Morse questions on radio writing, procedure, etc. Being the author of "I Love a Mystery", "One Man's Family", and many other radio shows, Mr. Morse was well able to answer the many questions asked.

One of the Moreland Scouts met Mr. Morse on his vacation at Sky-L'-londa and invited him to a troop meeting. Mr. Morse gladly consented, expressing his interest in the scout movement. Troop 36 then invited the other troops and made a gala affair out of it.

Scout leaders at the meeting were Mr. George Jeffers, district scout commissioner; from Troop 31, Ted Myers, scoutmaster, and E. R. Thompson, committeeman; from Troop 34, W. Doerr, committeeman; from Troop 36, R. D. Herschbach, scoutmaster; L. L. Miller, assistant scoutmaster, and H. J. Pankoski, committeeman.

When asked by the Troop 36 Scouts, Mr. Morse consented to write the Troop's history for possible publication in "Boy's Life", the Boy Scouts magazine.

All troops took part in the opening ceremony conducted by Troop 36. A dignified closing ceremony ended the meeting.

History Of Moreland Scout Troop 36

By Carlton E. Morse

Three years ago Moreland Scout Troop 36 of Campbell, California, was non-existing. Today Troop 36 is one of the shining examples of Scoutdom in Santa Clara County. And the astonishing part of the fine endeavor of these boys lies in the fact that when the Troop was begun there was not a single boy who had ever been a Scout before and no mature person in the community who had any knowledge about Scout leadership.

But the boys of the Moreland Community School wanted a Scout Troop; the parents of the community thought it a good idea and the principal of the school gave it her approval. But who would be leader of this movement? Who would take on the role of Scout Master? Well, there was one man whom all the boys liked and who apparently was fond of the younger generation. He was Mr. Laurence L. Miller, who drove the school bus and did the janitor work about the school. You see, Moreland School is deep in the heart of the Santa Clara prune and apricot and grape country. All the boys who go to Moreland School are farm boys and have to come miles to school. That's how they got acquanited with Mr. Miller. Night and morning he was their companion to and from school. Well, Mr. Miller objected at first because he realized at

Signatures Sufficient To Put City Status To Vote

More than enough signatures were present on the petitions requesting a special election to vote on incorporation, according to County Assessor Hayden Pitman. The petitions, circulated by members of the Campbell Taxpayers' Association were presented to the Board of Supervisors recently, who turned them over to the County Assessor's office for checking the validity of signatures.

Pitman told the Supervisors that sufficient names of property owners were listed, and the assessed valuations were sufficiently high to qualify the petitions for further action with more than enough names to spare.

The next procedure will be the setting of a hearing date by the Board of Supervisors, at which time the Board will decide if a special election should be held and will decrease the size of the proposed area if it is deemed advisable. The Board does not have the power to increase the size, but is given the authority to change the boundaries to make the area smaller.

According to a spokesman for the Supervisors, the Board considers a special election preferable to putting the matter on the November ballot since it is felt it would confuse the voters.

J. A. Bonacina, Sunnyvale city attorney, will be the guest speaker at Monday evening's open meeting of the Campbell Taxpayers' Association. Bonacina's subject will be "Incorporation".

At last Monday's meeting the members agreed to conduct a campaign to encourage registration in the coming election.

Keith Tindal in Hospital With Polio

In response to many solicitious inquiries, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tindall report that their small son, Keith, is still a patient in the isolation ward at the County Hospital where he was taken early last week with polio. The child was stricken while on the first day of his vacation with his father and elder brother at Lake Tahoe.

Paralysis of the left arm has resulted from the disease, but the small boy has not suffered from pain and he is responding well to treatment.

Other members of the family will be released from quarantine tomorrow.

James Roosevelt To Be Entertained At Saratoga

The Roosevelt - McEnery Democratic organization tour — which started in Salinas on Sept. 12—is meeting with enthusiastic response in Northern California.

With James Roosevelt, State chairman; John P. McEnery, vice-chairman, and Mrs. Adah Dodge, Women's Division chairman, as the principal attractions, the three State-wide candidates, Will Rogers Jr., John F. Shelley, and Edmund G. Brown, will join as their schedules permit.

Next Sunday, Sept. 15, at 10 a. m., members of the party will arrive at the Los Gatos City Hall, and will address the gathering, and then will proceed to Santa Cruz, where they will be entertained at the Municipal Picnic Grounds.

Leaving Santa Cruz at 4 p. m. they will arrive at Saratoga at 5 p. m., where they will be guests at the Pat Peabody home for a cocktail party.

John P. McEnery of San Jose, vice-chairman of the State Democratic committee, is in charge of the Northern California tour which is scheduled to end Sept. 27.

Former Campbell Man Dies

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at the Rutherford Funeral Home for Sylvester Barton, of San Jose, a former resident of Campbell. Barton died Sept. 7. His widow is a member of the Church of Christ here.

Officiating at the final rites were B. H. Little and A. J. Bachman. Singing in memory of the deceased were Ray Kirk, Del Noonkester, Mrs. Lucille Endaley and Mrs. Opal Noonkester.

Interment followed at the Santa Clara City Cemetery.

Board Endorses Proposition 3

At Monday evening's High School trustees' board meeting, the members of the board voted to endorse as a body Proposition 3, soon to be voted on.

The board also officially confirmed the opening date of school, which will be next Monday, Sept. 16. Many students have given up their summer work and are taking this week as a vacation. The High School football squad has already had its first practice.

Joseph Gomes was elected by the board to go as a delegate to the State Trustees Association convention to be held soon in San Diego. Laurence Hill, principal, will attend the principals' convention also to be held in San Diego.

Community Chest Budget Set Up

In preparation for the coming Community Chest campaign, the budget committee of the Campbell Community Council, met on Sept. 4, at the home of President Herbert Shadle, to discuss and plan the following recommended budget:

Boy Scouts headquarters	$ 500.00
Camp Fire Girls headquarters	250.00
Y. M. C. A. County headquarters	400.00
Y. W. C. A. Girl Reserves	75.00
U. S. O.	547.00
Library Association	500.00
Community Center (Scout Hall)	100.00
Campbell Relief Society	300.00
General Reserve	200.00
Office Expense	150.00
Unbudgeted Reserve	1,000.00
	$4,022.00

Martin J. Walsh, manager of the forthcoming Community Chest campaign, would like volunteer collectors to report as soon as possible, so that the campaign will get under way in full force in October.

The local headquarters will be at the Campbell Water Company office. Those ready to help in this needy work can contact the secretary at Campbell 2087, or Campbell 3430.

State Organization Reports On School

Campbell Union elementary school district's average total current expenditure per pupil of $89.95 for 1944-45 was less than the $98.99 median or midpoint expenditure for the 52 school districts of 851 to 1,250 elementary average daily attendance in the State, California Taxpayers' Association said recently, making public the second section of its annual study of elemetary school expenditures.

The district's $57.83 expenditure per pupil in average daily attendance for teachers salaries was less than the $69.51 median expenditure for teachers salaries by the districts in the same size group.

Other current expenditures of $32.12 per pupil for 1944-45 were less than the $32.15 median for other current expenditures of the districts with 851 to 1,250 elementary average daily attendance.

High for total current expenditures for the districts in California with 851 to 1,250 elementary average daily attendance for 1944-45 was $149.85. Low was $73.90. High expenditure per pupil for teachers salaries in this size group was $97.49, and low was $50.24. High for other current expenditures for the districts in this group was $55.87, while low was $17.96.

Median or midpoint expenditures make a good base for study or comparison of per pupil expenditures by school districts, the association said. In using this yardstick, the expenditures of half the districts in this size group are above the median or half are below.

"Causes for any wide variation from the median in school district expenditures per pupil should be carefully considered both by the school board and citizens of the district," the Taxpayers' Association said.

Mrs. Wyland Morgan Heads Fair Booth

Mrs. Wyland Morgan, well-known wife of Dr. W. R. Morgan, Campbell dentist, will have charge of this community's booth at the Santa Clara County Fair, Sept. 17 to 22.

Mrs. Ben Campbell, chairman of the Women's Division of the Fair, has announced that 15 cities and communities have arranged to take competive booths, which will feature canned and preserved foods and all types of women's handicraft.

In addition to the community booths, there will be individual exhibits in wide variety and displays by women's clubs and organizations.

Exhibits, both community and individual, will represent a cross-section of women's varied interests and activities. The entries will range from ginger cookies to ceramics, from water-color paintings to patchwork quilts.

The Women's Division will have its own quarters at the Fair, according to Mrs. Campbell. It will be housed in a 10,000 square foot tent adjoining the main agricultural, horticultural and floricultural tent at the County Fair Grounds, two and one-half miles south of San Jose on Highway 101.

About $500 in cash prizes will be offered for community booths and individual exhibits — more than double the amount offered at Santa Clara County's last Fair in 1941. Entries by women's clubs organizations will receive ribbons. Judging will be by boards of three judges, and there will be separate judging boards for various types of entries.

Competitive entries will be confined to County residents.

Every week a name will be drawn from our list of new subscribers and printed in the classified ad column. The person whose name appears there may receive two free passes to the Campbell Theater by calling at the Press Office. Look and see if your name is there!

We have encountered some confusion regarding the Board of Supervisors and the County Planning Commission.

The County Board of Supervisors is an elective body whose purpose is County government. Its members are elected for a term of four years.

Appointed by the Supervisors is the County Planning Board whose function is to plan the growth of the County. They hear all petitions for rezoning, establishment of airports and similar matters.

An unsatisfied petitioner may appeal the County Planning Board's decision to the "higher court"—the County Board of Supervisors.

The term of office for County Planning Commissioners is the same as Supervisors—four years.

On the present Planning Board are: Charles Kuhn, Evergreen rancher; W. W. Curtner, Milpitas rancher; Robert Kirkwod, Saratoga attorney and rancher; Carroll Wentz, Gilroy druggist; W. B. Weston, rancher at Lawrence Station; and Herbert Shadle, retired Campbell druggist. Nestor Barrett serves as director and secretary.

DREW PEARSON

NIMITZ WILL RESIGN

WASHINGTON.—Adm. Chester Nimitz, hero of the Pacific and one of the most efficient leaders of the Navy, has indicated to friends that he will retire as chief of naval operations after about one year of his four-year appointment.

Backstage reason is that Nimitz finds his job chiefly requires lobbying naval appropriations through Congress, and he would much rather be at sea than playing politics. Furthermore, Washington society is running him ragged.

Mrs. Nimitz doesn't feel the came way at all about Washington society—which perhaps is one reason why the admiral wants to get out of the capital. He hates dinners, loathes cocktail parties and feels ill-at-ease at receptions. But Mrs. Nimitz loves them and insists on dragginng her husbad along when she makes the rounds.

Rigors of war the Pacific now have begun to look like heaven in contrast with scocial Washington and when the right time comes next year, the admiral plans quietly to pull out.

Note — Grandson of a Texas hotelkeeper, Admiral Nimitz hopes to retire to Texas or the California coast.

PRESIDENTIAL SEASICKNESS

Those who suffer from stomach maladjustments when they travel by sea or air will be glad to know that President Truman not only sympathizes with them but also has found a fairly good remedy for seasickness. The cure is not 100 per cent effective, however, and that is one reason the President's yacht turned south.

Mr. Truman had a bottle of seasickness pills with him on his recent cruise—a remedy concocted by the Canadian army for use by its troops when they crossed the Atlantic or went ashore in tank landing barges. It is supposed to be the best thing so far developed to cure seasickness.

The President always carries a bottle with him when afloat and eats the pellets almost as if they were candy. On his first important sea trip aboard the cruiser Augusta to Potsdam one year ago, he took this medicine along and apparently avoided seasickness.

However, Mr. Truman, born and raised on the Midwest prairies, doesn't get the same kick out of the sea as did F. D. R.

HUSHED-UP INCIDENT

Tenseness of the Russo-American situation in southeast Europe is illustrated by an incident in Austria so far hushed up by the censors.

For some time, the Soviet government has been pressing Gen. Mark Clark to permit cross-examination of Yugoslav, Baltic and other displaced persons in Austria. Many of them rebelled against going back to their homelands for fear of Soviet reprisals, but some were willing to go. Finally General Clark agreed that the Soviet could send in 12 men to ask them questions.

While the Soviet team was at work with the displaced persons, General Clark was giving secret information from one of the D.P.'s as to what was going on. Eventually this informat reported to Clark that he was under Soviet scrutiny.

So Clark secretly placed an American machine gun in a room above the informant's and another machine gun on the roof of the building opposite.

A night or two later a squad of Russians drove up to the informan't home, knocked down his door and carried him out in the street. Immediately the U. S. troops turned on their searchlights and arrested the Russians.

Here was the pay-off. Our allies, the Russians, were dressed in the uniforms of American military police.

TRIGGER-HAPPY TITO

The question of using "horse-and-buggy" tactics to calm Dictator Tito of Yugoslavia, especially the Navy's dispatch of cruisers to Trieste, has been criticized privately inside the U. S. armed forces.

U. S. warships at the head of the Adriaotic, according to Army men, could be caught in a trap and might be sunk with one bomb. Furthermore, the cost of operating one cruiser in contrast to an airplane is tremendous.

Therefore, U. S. Army commanders in Europe have proposed that we send one or two B-29s over Yugoslavia to see what Tito's trigger-happy warriors do about it.

ELDER STATESMAN BARUCH

Kindly elderly statesman Bernie Baruch has made a private proposition to the State department that he be allowed to read its secret cables from diplomatic posts throughout the world. These are a gold mine of information for which any business man or banker would give his eye-teeth. Baruch promised, a little naively, that if he was given the daily secret intelligence summary of world affairs, he would show them only to his two investment-banker assistants.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Saturday morning, Sept. 7, as I was returning home from shopping I met Mrs. Cousins, who mentioned quite casually that she was attending a meeting of the Youth Council that evening. Because of curiosity and intense interest in what the council is planning for the children, I asked if I could go with her. She said I would be more than welcome and I went.

After arriving there I learned that the purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the members with the new director. The people of Campbell should know this woman for she is someone well worth knowing.

Her name is Mrs. Modeana Catron. She is the mother of a young girl, known as Denny to her friends and is a sophomore in the Campbell High School. Although Mrs. Catron works from seven in the morning until three in the afternoon supporting herself, her daughter and her mother, she still finds time to keep the "Roost" clean, plan activities, and be there nights to supervise the doings of the children. And all this she does without compensation of any kind. She doesn't want any pay—as she stated "I'm doing this to make my daughter happy and at the same time I'm making other children happy." Were there more parents like Mrs. Catron juvenile delinquency would practically be unheard of.

Along with giving tribute to Mrs. Catron, a word of honor should also be said of a Mr. James Peterson of Rt. 1 Box -97, San Jose. He came Saturday night with his daughter and taught the boys and girls folk dancing. So inspiring was his work, that before the evening was over Mrs. Cousins and I were dancing too. He has offered to come back and the only retribution he wants is more children to dance with him.

There were only about fifteen youngsters at the dance Saturday night. That is a very little amount, considering the number of teen-agers there are in Campbell. Now that there is so enthusiastic a woman in charge and Mr. Peterson promising to show the boys and girls a lot of fun, won't the parents do what they can to induce their children to attend? Perhaps they could take an evening to go with their child and join in the fun—and it would be fun if they would only give it a chance.

Very respectfully yours,
BLANCHE GILPATRICK.

Campbell Court Notes

By Judge Blaine

After pleading guilty to "drunk in county", a violation of County Ordinance No. 108, an elderly wanderer said, "Judge, please send me to the Jail Farm for 30 days. That will give me a chance to pull myself together again."

Thirty days is the limit sentence for "drunk in county", and this instance was the first time on local record that a defendant had asked for the limit. Sentence was as requested.

A young man of 30 was sent to the Jail Farm for 90 days for not keeping his word. He had been on probation for disturbing the peace, and 90 days is the limit for this offense. Defendant had failed to report after a definite promise of date and hour, and had done so without explanation or apology.

Defendant thought this sentence was rather severe. The judge said, "At first I gave you a sample of my tender heart. It wasn't appreciated. Now I'm giving you a sample of my hard head expressed through the iron hand. It's awfully trite, but terribly true that some can only learn the hard way."

A Mexican, 38, a prune picker with a wife and eight children, pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace and getting in the way of the harvest. His wife and his boss requested that defendant be sent to the Jail Farm until the family was ready to return to Los Angeles County, the home.

Defendant protested, saying that he could safely drink beer, and only went crazy on wine or stronger. His record suggested that he usually preferred wine or stronger. He was sentenced to the Farm on a harvest estimate of three more weeks. At the Farm he is having choice of water, coffee, milk, or all three—but nothing stronger.

40 West Campbell Avenue Phone 3457 Res. 2027

Electricity works hard in the modern home. And you put it to work in every room in the house. That's why house wiring today must be better, more complete . . . Adequate now and for the future.

Adequate Wiring gives added convenience, too. For example, when there are too few outlets, your furniture must be placed not where it looks best but where the few outlets are. Also one must disconnect a clock or radio to run the vacuum cleaner.

Insist on complete, modern Adequate Wiring in your new home. Look for it in your house plans and keep it there. Don't cut down on your house wiring. You'll be sorry later if you do.

Veterans News

The new ceilings placed on incomes of veterans in training under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act by the recent Congress will reduce government aid to large numbers of ex-servicemen enrolled in on-the-job training, but probably will make things easier for many in colleges and universities.

Under the new law, subsistence will be paid to veterans in training only where their wages with subsistence do not exceed $175 a month for a person with no dependents, or $200 if he has dependents.

However, the same law permits the Veterans Administration to pay students in schools their full subsistence even if they are working at full-time jobs on the side, provided their wages and subsistence pay combined do not exceed the established ceilings.

Heretofore, no veteran student in school under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act could accept full-time employment without sacrificing his subsistence pay.

Question: May I transfer from one college to another under the provisions of the Servicemens Readjustment Act?

Answer: Yes. A veteran may change his school, but he must have the approval of the VA in advance.

Q. I took out $5,000 worth of insurance while I was in the service. Is it possible for me to increase that amount to the full $10,000 now?

A. Yes. The new insurance law makes this possible.

Q. Is it possible for one veteran to get full $4,000 guarantee to buy a home and also the full guarantee of $2,000 for a business loan?

A. No. If he gets the full loan guarantee for one type of loan, he uses all his guarantee credit. He can, however, use a percentage of his guarantee for one purpose and the remaining percentage for another.

Q. Can an amputee-veteran get the money from the VA to buy a car—as provided for in the new bill which Congress passed recently?

A. No. The law states that the VA will pay the seller the total purchase on delivery of the car in accordance with the agreement made between the veteran and the dealer. Payment will be made up to $1,600 for eligible veterans.

Q. Can a veteran buy a more expensive car by paying the difference himself?

A. No. $1,600 must be the total purchase price.

Past Commander Urges Proposition 3

"One of California's greatest bulwarks against juvenile delinquency—education—is being undermined by depletion of the State's teacher force," Mrs. Frieda Mooney Koerner, past national commander of the Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary, warned this week.

She said the teacher shortage is a result of low salary standards throughout the State, and announced her advocacy of Proposition 3 on the November ballot. This measure would guarantee a minimum annual salary of $2400 to California public school teachers.

"A number of schools already have been forced to close in rural areas," Mrs. Koerner said. "Unless something is done to recruit thousands of new teachers, the closing of schools may become much more widespread. It is inevitable under such circumstances that juvenile delinquency will increase."

Sam Markel, prominent in the American Legion's State program of youth welfare, joined Mrs. Koerner in her support for Proposition 3. He also expressed concern over the juvenile delinquency problem.

"Proposition 3 would require no new local taxes, as State funds orginally designated for school support already are adequate for the purpose," Markel pointed out.

KIWANIAN CLUB HEARS THEATER MAN

At the Campbell Kiwanis meeting Tuesday, Sept. 10, Mr. Don Brown, manager of the Los Gatos theater, gave an interesting talk of the operation of the present day moving picture projector. He stated that previous to adding sound in 1926, pictures in the main were crude, but have been constantly improved since.

Hon. Francis Dunn Jr., member of California Legislature for Alameda County was a visitor and spoke on a number of the propositions to appear on the November ballot.

Other visitors were W. H. McLaughlin of the San Jose club, and George Sohler of the Mountain View club.

The next meeting will be ladies night and the program was unannounced.

An interesting program for the near future will present Mr. Paul Ganshirt who will speak on the subject "Juvenile Delinquency".

Model Plane Meet Planned

Over 10,000 persons will be present at the Polo Field in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park on Sunday, Sept. 22, when the Aviation Committee of the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsors its third annual model plane contest.

Over $1,000 in prizes will be awarded at the meet which will attract top-notch plane builders from all sections of California.

The contest is divided into two divisions: one for towline gliders, the other for gasoline-powered models, with further divisions according to the age of the contestant. Entry is free to all contestants.

At the 1945 meet an unofficial record was set by Al Clark of Palo Alto, when a plane built by him attained a speed of 123.4 miles per hour.

Bill Gallagher, chairman of the Aviation Committee, has applane clubs to determine classes planeo clubs to determine classes and general rules of the meet. Paul Naton and Nate Emory have charge of the actual operations of the contest.

Al Waltz of Samuel Gompers Trades School and Bert Walker of the San Francisco Junior Museum will be contest directors of power models and gliders, respectively. These men deserve much credit for the success of the first two model plane contests.

Rules are being prepared and will be forwarded to schools and hobby shops in a few days. Entry blanks may be filled out at the Polo Field on the day of the meet.

BAY AREA NUDISTS WELL REPRESENTED AT WESTERN CONVENTION

Over 250 members and delegates of the Western branches attended the first post-war convention of the Western Nudist Conference over the Labor Day holiday.

Host for this convention was Ernie Miller at his secluded Samagatuma Ranch in San Diego County. During the three-day session many news plans were discussed and adopted for the future growth and development of the philosophy of nudism. Principal guest speaker was Rev. Ilsley Boone, executive secretary of the American Sunbathing Association, who assured the fullest cooperation of the national headquarters.

California was voted the most ideal State for the development of natural living.

Several members of the Rovers Club, which serves the San Jose area, were among the delegation from the Bay region, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Keck attended from Campbell.

LUNCH BOX MEALS SHOULD CONTAIN ADEQUATE CALORIES

Keep a supply of cookies on hand because they're so easy to wrap and slip in the lunch box with fresh fruit. Drop cookies with fruit and nuts are excellent from a nutritional standpoint.

SCHOOL DAYS

School days, school days . . . they should be golden rule days for mothers as well as children. It's a well proved fact by now that unless the youngster has a good lunch to nourish and satisfy him, the grades are apt to go downward.

Most mothers wouldn't hear of the youngsters eating a slim sandwich and a coke if they were eating at home, but many of them ignore such eating habits away from home. Each child, who eats out near school, should be thoroughly coached in the selection of his food.

If lunch is brought from home, the mother has an accurate check on her child's food. She will be able to tell whether the child eats his food or not by his general behaviour and physical condition.

Now, what are the requirements of a good noonday meal? They are a third of the day's calories and a third, if possible, of the fruit, vegetables, meat or substitute, bread and milk required for good health.

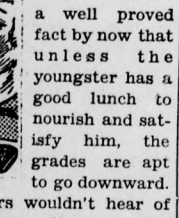
A good idea for the mother who must prepare daily lunches is to have a shelf with all lunch-making equipment assembled, plus a corner in the refrigerator to take care of the perishables. This makes speed and efficiency possible.

A variety of breads is essential if lunches are to stimulate interest in eating from day to day. You can purchase white, whole wheat and rye bread, but it's smart to make specialty breads occasionally.

Graham Prune Bread

1 cup bread flour
2½ cups graham flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
¼ cup sugar
1¼ cups milk
1 beaten egg
1 tablespoon melted shrtening
1 cup prunes, cooked, stoned and diced.

Sift together dry ingredients. Add milk and egg, then fold in shortening. Fold in prunes last and bake in a greased loaf pan in a slow (325 degree) oven for about one hour. Prune juice may be substituted for part milk.



Orange Nut Bread

3 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup sugar
¼ cup chopped walnut meats
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
¼ cup orange marmalade
1 egg, well beaten
1 cup milk

Sift together all dry ingredients, then add walnut meats, orange rind and marmalade. Lastly fold in egg and milk. Bake in a well greased bread pan (let mixture stand in tin 10 minutes before baking) then use a moderate (350 degree) oven for ¾ to 1 hour.

LYNN CHAMBER'S MENUS
Beef Short Ribs with Vegetables
Peach Salad Browned Potatoes
Date Bread
Grape Chiffon Cake Beverage

If sandwiches are the mainstay of the box lunch, they should be just as interesting as it is possible to make them. Have the bread moistly fresh, use softened butter, or a flavored butter (like shili or mustard butetor), have the filling well seasoned and not too dry. If using lettuce, have it washed well and very carefully dried. You'll like some of these ideas:

Chili butter: soften ¼ cup butter and mix thoroughly with 1 tablespoon chili sauce.

Mustard butoter: Mix ½ cup butter with 2 or 3 tablespoon sf prepared mustard.

Cream Cheese-Olive Filling

3 ounces cream cheese
¼ cup sweet pickle relish
1 tablespoon chopped, stuffed olives
1 tablespoon maynnaise or cooked dressing

Blend together thoroughly and spread on white or whole wheat bread.

Liver Spread

¼ cup liver sausage, mashed
1 tablespoon sweet pickle relish
1 tablespoon mayonnaise
1 teaspoon chili sauce

Mix thoroughly and use on rye bread.

Here are some thumbnail suggestions which you can use from day to day to add variety:

Peanut butter mixed with shredded carrots and mayonnaise.

Peanut butter mixed with sweet pickle relish.

Veal loaf sliced, placed on bread, topped with cabbage cole slaw.

Diced ham mixed with diced hard-cooked egg, topped with sliced tomatoes.

Deviled ham mixed with one of the following: cucumber, chopped green pepper, chopped stuffed olives or chipped dill pickle.

Meat, vegetables, fruit and milk are essentials for the packed lunch. Don't forget to add surprises and wrap well so that this type of lunch will be as delectable as one eaten at home.

Sliced meat loaf with sliced cheese.

Minced tuna or salmon mixed with mayonnaise, chopped celery and green pepper.

Chopped hard-cooked egg mixed with chopped sweet pickles and mustard butter.

Baked beans mixed with chili sauce.

For cooler days, make sure there's a nice hot drink to go with sandwiches; or, better still, make up some hot soup and put it up in a thermos. The youngsters will really nejoy it.

What shall we put in for dessert? Well, there's fruited gelatin, individual pies, turnovers, cup cakes, cookies, sweet rolls, fresh fruit, fruit or berry sauces and puddings. Fresh fruit and homemade cookies such as these spicy ones are always well received:

Spicy Pumpkin Cookies
(Makes 2 dozen)

¼ cup fat
½ cup sugar
1 egg, beaten
½ cup pumpkin, cooked
1 cup flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoon cinnamon
⅛ teaspoon ginger
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup raisins
½ cup chopped nuts

Cream fat and sugar; add egg. Blend in pumpkin, then add flour and baking powder, salt and spices. Fold in raisins and nuts. Drop by teaspoonfuls on greased baking sheet and bake in a moderate (375 degree) oven for 15 minutes.

Give your gold fish a new outlook on life! Put them in one of the fish-shaped glass bowls to be found at The House of Riches and let them see what's going on about them. You will also enjoy watching your fish through the glass. These bowls come in two sizes and if you prefer cats to gold fish the bowls lend themselves to interesting floral arrangements. Lovely cut glass cigarette boxes and ash trays are also among the new articles. Especially attractive are the pieces of California Ever Art ceramics in pink and white with delicate French roses. Vases in three shapes and sizes, ash trays and cigarette boxes are three of the types on display.

Chilly these mornings, isn't it? It seems too early to turn on the pilot or start the furnace and yet a little warmth is needed. The Campbell Hardware has new electric heaters which you should see. They come in three styles, fan, circulator, and radiant, and should help you solve that early morning heating problem.

Rachel has dickeys in a number of colors and styles. There are tailored dickeys with peter pan colors to wear with your slip-over sweaters, and dressy net dickeys trimmed in lace and embroidery for your dress suits. Those made with tiny pleats and high necks are particularly good looking. Many dickeys are now made so they wrap around and form nearly a complete blouse. The net type come in white, pastels and black, while the peter pan variety come in white.

* * *

Stationery seems to be getting better looking each year. Clark's has a new selection that should please all members of the family, and some that would serve as very special Christmas presents. A style named "Debutante" is mighty good looking in white with light blue and pink envelope flaps. You will want to purchase "Cheerio" just for the box which is white with tiny colored flowers with a few words under each group such as "success", "happiness", and "good health". The same idea is used on the paper with the flowers across the top of each sheet. Paper for informal notes in blue and gray, paper for the children with nursery story borders, and tan paper for the gentlemen are other available types.

Boys, for your athletic equipment you should visit Benson's. They now have sweat shirts in all sizes—the warm type that you can use all year, athletic supporters, and sweat socks. Better stock up before school starts.

Your school sweaters have arrived at The Dresser Drawer. There is a good assortment for both boys and girls. The coat style for boys go to size 10 and are in colors brown and maroon; boys' slip-overs come in blue, aqua and yellow. For the girls there are colors in both styles and several types of knits from which you may choose.

* * *

When in doubt about a present get a book. The What Not has quite an assortment of new books. 'Old Doc" by Elizabeth Seifert is a fascinating story about a doctor and the relationship between his personal life and his profession. 'Road to Calvary" by Alexei Tolstoy is one of the outstanding achievements in Soviet fiction. It deals with the most difficult period in Russian history—the period of the First World War, Revolution, and Civil War. The author was awarded the Stalin prize. If you prefer something lighter, Walter Kareg's "Lower Than Angels" should please you with the interesting characterizations and humor. Other novels are "Then and Now" by W. Somerset Maugham, "Singing Waters" by Ann Bridge, "Deborah" by Marian Castle and Helen Howe's "We Happy Few". One of the oustanding autobiographies, that of William Allan White, is also on hand.

Red Cross Gives Procedure For Getting Son Home

What to do when the family has an emergency situation at home necessitating the presence of a son in the peacetime armed forces, was told this week by Frank H. Lewis, chairman of the San Jose Chapter, American Red Cross.

"If the family, in addition to letting their son know of the emergency situation, will also inform our Home Service Corps representative here in Campbell, Mrs. E. L. Farnham, or headquarters at the San Jose Chapter House, we can immediately inform the Red Cross field director at the boy's post, if the doctor recommends his presence," Lewis said.

"Since the boy's commanding officer will ask the field director, in practically all cases, to obtain information on the emergency, much time and expense can be saved if the field director has the information at hand and does not have to write or telephone the chapter for it."

When the commanding officer has information on the emergency from the man requesting the furlough, as well as from the Red Cross field director on the post, he is in a position to make an immediate decision on the request. If the furlough is granted, hours and sometimes days have been saved in getting a soldier or sailor to his famly.

Hatchery Named In Suit

Ohen's Hatchery, Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road, and T. D. Dunsmoor were named defendants in a $5873 damage suit filed in Superior Court last week by Lee Loeffler who claims that his chicken business was profitable until he purchased 770 New Hampshire straight run chicks from Dunsmoor to enlarge his flock.

After circulating the new chickens among his own, he said he discovered they were infected with a dangerous and contagious chicken disease known as "pneumoencephalitis".

In addition to the loss of 640 hens, pullets and chickens he claims he is losing an average of 30 chickens a day, his egg production has fallen off, and it has been necessary to destroy some of his chicken coops as well as go to the expense of disinfecting and medical treatment for the remaining chickens.

Loeffler is represented by Attorney Carl L. Hubbell of Los Gatos.

CAMPBELL MAN'S MOTHER DIES SUDDENLY IN PORTERVILLE

Tommy Waggle returned this week from Porterville where final rites for his mother, Mrs. Mary Waggle, were held following her unexpected death on Sept. 3. In addition to her son in Campbell, Mrs. Waggle leaves her husband, three daughters and three other sons.

Report to people who are waiting for telephone service

More than 324,000 telephones have been added on the Pacific Coast in the first full year since the war. During the first half of 1946 we added telephones almost twice as fast as ever before.

Still, there is a tremendous job yet to be done. The Pacific Coast is continuing to grow rapidly. New applicants for telephone service have been pouring in at double the rate a year ago.

But we are doing our best to catch up. Millions of dollars worth of new equipment is on the way.

You may be certain that we will bring you your telephone just as soon as we possibly can. Thank you for your patience.

STARTS CAMPAIGN

Howard F. Hornbuckle, candidate for Sheriff of Santa Clara County at the November election, officially opened his campaign with a huge meeting of county-wide friends and supporters in the banquet room of the Hotel De Anza recently.

Hornbuckle, former San Jose police captain and a member of the San Jose police department for 14 years, spoke to those present, stating that he "is a citizen's candidate for a citizen's job, first, last, and always."

Hornbuckle, who graduated from both the FBI National Academy, Washington, D. C., and the San Jose State College Police School, indicated that he has not made any promises to anyone and will not make any promises. "I am seeking public office because I am a qualified and trained law enforcement officer, and because many civic minded citizens have urged me to do so," said Hornbuckle.

Simultaneously, it was announced that Hornbuckle's campaign headquarters have been reopened in Room 209, Security Building, telephone Columbia 8756W.

Moreland Scout Troop 36

once the responsibility of good Scout leadership and he knew nothing whatever about scouting. But he seemed the logical choice and as he was not only liked by the boys, but was highly regarded by the parents and principal of the school, he finally agreed to take the post and "learn with the boys".

And that's how Troop 36 began; with eight boys divided into Wolf and Eagle Patrols and a leader as new to scouting as his eight raw recruits. Later a third, the Panther Patrol, was added.

And now in three years the Troop has 20 members of finely trained, self-sufficient, well dressed and equipped Scouts who have taken honors in the annual Scout circuses, field days, and has distinguished itself time after time in the inter-patrol Hike-O-Rees. To add to this the Troop brought new honor to itself in 1945 by winning Eisenhower medals for each of its members in the General Boy Scout paper drive collection. Troop 36 was assigned a thousand pounds of paper per boy and it turned in two tons above the quota.

It was in this same year that Mr. Miller stepped down to assistant Scout Master in favor of Mr. Robert D. Herchbach. This made possible increased hikes and camping trips and more ardent training, so that when the 1945 field day arrived Troop 36 was in a position to take top honors, including the field day banner for winning the greatest number of events.

This same year a nine-day Summer camp was held at the Big Basin State Park which gave the boys the final training for their most exciting and spectacular trip this year. This was their 11-day trip into Yosemite Park. By this time they had proved to their parents and Scout leaders that they were a well-knit, well-trained and organized Troop, capable of obedience, trust and caring for themselves under any conditions. This made the trip to Yosemite not only a happy adventure for the Troop, but gave the boys another chance to prove what fine Scouts they were.

They slept out of doors, did their own cooking, as well as other camp chores. Because of their splendid deportment they were selected by National Park officials as the subject for photographs to be used in future Yosemite Park literature. Entertainment included a 20-mile hike to Glasier Point, swimming, visits to the museum and the Great Fire Fall in the evening. As a monument to their trip they built a Pioneer Bridge across Tenaya Creek, a branch of the Merced River. The workmanship was so impressive the park officials photographed it for their national records.

Trop 36 is also noted for subscribing one hundred per cent to Boys Life.

But the one thing which has made this a top ranking troop is the backing of the parents. Time after time this troop has won the attendance honor for the highest percentage of parents and friends present. Not only do the parents want their boys to be good Scouts, but they do all in their power to contribue to that success, not only financially, but by attending all Scout events where the public is permitted. There's nothing that encourages young people like the interest of their elders whom they love and admire.

COUNTY GOVERNMENT COSTS ANALYZED

Santa Clara County's $24.26 per capita cost of county government for 1944-45 was spent $2.54 for general government, $1.10 for protection to persons and property, 23 cents for health and sanitation, $1.79 for highways and bridges, $17.99 for charities and corrections, 56 cents for recreation, education, and miscellaneous, and 5 cents for debt payments, California Taxpayers' Association said recently.

Over the State as a whole, the counties spent an average of $26.67 for general county purposes during 1944-45. Of this, an averageof $3.32 per capita was for general government, $2.20 for protection to persons and property, 78 cents for health and sanitation, $2.48 for highways and bridges, $16.55 for charities and corrections, 94 cents for recreation, education, and miscellaneous, and 40 cents for debt payments, the association found.

Per capita expenditures for charities and corrections far outdistanced expenditures for any other function of county government in every California county except Alpine, which showed larger expenditures per capita for highways and bridges than for any other purpose.

"With aid to the needy standards fixed by the State, the field for economy in county government is considerably narrowed," the Taxpayers' Association said. "Rising prices and today's high tax levels make it more than ever necessary that every possible administrative improvement that will reduce expense be put into practice by all governmental units."

Mrs. Paul Becker Writes From Guatemala

Now there was more arguing about unloading. Carlos went to bat for us and almost had a fight with one of the officials. If the cars weren't unloaded it would mean the fellows had to stay in the cars over night. At times it looked as though the unloading would not go on, and for two hours everyone haggled. Finally, by paying just a little more to be sure all costs were taken care of, the cars were unloaded. The workers pushed one flat car back far enough and put two planks up for the wheels. The missionaries had to back down, so it was a thrilling sight. Paul and Vrooman came down forward and each man was given a hand. The cars had come in at six and by nine we were eating dinner. Now that doesn't seem such a record, but I wish I could tell you just how much sweat, tears, and almost blood, went into such an operation. Sunday we more or less recuperated and made plans to cross the border Monday. We also met every train in case someone else would have a car come in, but none did. By now our visa to enter Guatemala had run out—we should have entered the country two days previously. We were going to be honest and go to the consul there, but the hotel manager said that he could be very nasty and hold us up a week while wiring S. F.!!! We decided to chance it and try to get through. We wanted to get out of Mexico and see if there really was such a country as Guatemala.

Monday, July 22, we headed for the border and underwent an inspection by the Mexican officials. And now, we left that country, crossed a bridge, and were in Guatemala. The air was cleaner, the people were more friendly and the trees were greener. The first official looked at our passports, hesitated—we inhaled—he turned a page and we all breathed as he seemed to think it was O. K.

That morning, two other cars had come in and one belonged to Slim, so we traveled in more or less of a caravan—two missionary cars, ours, Vrooman, Slim, and McElroy. At the first town we drained out all the Mexican gas and put in Standard at 54 cents a gallon and were happy to do it as the former gas made the engine sound as though a crap game were going at full tilt. Thus were we shed of all memories of Mexico. The road immediately began to climb and the car boiled three times. We merely stopped and enjoyed the scenery and chewed candy. The grade was so steep that we were in low gear most of the time and never out of a curve before another started. The highway consisted of rocks, big ones and little ones—Guatemala has no oil. By nine we were in Quezaltenango and had rooms in a lovely hotel, again built around a court. Here it was cool and food was available, as was good coffee. Twelve of us from the caravan ate dinner at midnight and had a wonderful time hashing over the events of the day. The missionaries had camped along the way. We had stopped on the road to visit with them.

The next morning at breakfast I was so happy to have a good cup of coffee that I drank six cups. Paul had to have the brakes fixed and a few little things done to the car, so he hunted a garage. The owner also owned a factory and other businesses, and as he talked German he and Paul conversed and had a big time. Late in the afternoon, we headed toward Lake Atitlan and again climbed, this time to over 11,000 feet. We were above the timber line and freezing. The road was the same, and we spent a good deal of the time in low gear. That night we stayed in Casa Contenta in the chalet right on the edge of the lake. They served a delicious dinner with the first vegetables we had seen in a month, a marimba band played, and we really knew it had been worth it to get to such a place.

The next afternoon we arrived in Guatemala City, just one month after we had left Campbell. It's a clean city, and one can buy pasteurized milk, butter and good bread. Rents are high, but our friends had found a reaosonable place with a yard. We have hibiscus, poinsettas and bouganville in abundance.

The other night we plugged in all the electrical appliances and blew a fuse. Here one phones the company and they send a man to put in a fuse—$20.00 fine if you open the box, as so many try to put in coins.

The market for vegetables is in a huge building and all the Indians bring their produce and squat in the center. Surprisingly, it is clean. You bargain for even a bunch of radishes, and if your price isn't reached you go on to the next one. The following is what we bought for $1.97: 3 quarts strawberries, 3 bunches green beans, 1 pineapple, 6 tomatoes, 1 bunch turnips, 1 dozen oranges, 1 cauliflower, 2 lbs. potatoes, 2 lbs. green peas, 2 ears corn, 1 bunch carrots, 2 bunches radishes, 3 bunches flowers, 1 cocoanut.

Every morning a boy from the grocery store comes for your order, and it is delivered later. The cleaner stops by also. The bread man comes, as does the milk man. up a week while wiring S. nF.!! We have a girl to serve and clean, and she is Johnny on the spot even to interpreting what we mean with motions and our limited Spanish.

Canned food from the States is high; catsup is 80 cents, soup is 40 cents, but with the abundance of fresh vegetables we don't have to buy it. Here is where I can really crow though—roast meat is 20 cents a pound, regardless of the cut, steak is 28 cents a pound, and the fillets are super.

It is just now three, and Paul, believe it or not, is arising from a siesta! He loves them. Lunch hour here is two hours and one couldn't buy a thing during those hours.

I must close and will include my address and promise faithfully to answer any letters I receive.

County Income Below State Level

Santa Clara County last year ranked about thirty-second among the 58 counties of the State in per capita income, figures released by the California Reconstruction and Reemployment Commission indicated recently.

The figures also indicated that the County's per capita income, $1085, was below the average for the State as a whole, $1314. County with the biggest per capita income was San Francisco with $2090. The figures were based on estimates made by the California State Chamber of Commerce.

Jan Peerce To Open San Jose Concert Series

The San Jose musical season will open with a gala event on Thursday evening, Oct. 3, when Jan Peerce, leading lyric tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will appear as the first of ten stellar events on the 11th annual San Jose Concert Series. The celebrated tenor, who made his debut at the Metropolitan in 1941, is heard over the radio as well as in concert and in opera, his magnificent voice and matchless singing making him Toscanini's "favorite tenor".

Also on the Concert Series, which is sponsored by To Kalon Club, are the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, Nov. 25; Dorothy Maynor, Negro soprano, Dec. 7; Hurok Russian Ballet, Feb. 3; Piatigorsky, cellist, Feb. 7; Trudi Schoop Comic Ballet, Feb. 24; First Piano Quartet, Feb. 27; Draper and Adler, March 14; Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, March 20; Rubinstein, April 25. Season tickets are available.

New York Stage Plays Coming to San Jose

"The Hasty Heart", "best original play of the season", will have a single performance in San Jose on Sunday evening, Oct. 13. Now playing in San Francisco, "The Hasty Heart" has received superlative praise from critics and all who have seen it. Following, will come to San Jose "The Glass Menagerie", "State of the Union", "Anna Lucasta", "Merry Widow", "Magnificent Yankee" and many others.

Tickets for all events are on sale at the Denny-Watrous box office, San Jose Auditorium.

THE CAT

Sinuous muscles, smoothly playing.
Lowered head and gleaming eyes.
Velvet paws silently stepping
Through the grasses 'neath moonlit skies.
Flattened ears and cruel expressionless
Joy as the victim dies.
Yellow eyes with cunning narrow
As another prey she spies.
Bright lights dancing through the grasses,
Kitty is stalking fire-flies.

Where To Go-- What To See

Let's go to the fair! This weekend, county fairs number high in the list of events scheduled throughout the State. But just in case you aren't fair-minded, several other recreative attractions are scheduled which are designed for pure diversion and relaxation. The Travel and Recreation Committee of the California State Chamber of Commerce suggests you give consideration to the Los Gatos annual pageant entitled "The Cats", a mammoth outdoor spectacle, to the Lodi Grape and Wine Festival and horse lovers to the third annual Marin County Horse Day and the fourth annual Horse Show of the Metropolitan Horsemen's Association.
